23. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff also encountered frequent racial and inflammatory speech from Defendants.
24. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff any overtime premium (time and a half) for hours worked over forty (40) in each workweek.
25. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with wage statements at the time of payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked, and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

29. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly harmed Plaintiff and similarly situated individuals by engaging in a pattern, practice, and/or policy of violating the FLSA and the NYLL.
30. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants have willfully engaged in a pattern, policy, and practice of unlawful conduct for the actions alleged in this Complaint, in violation of the federal and state rights of the Plaintiffs, similarly situated individuals, and members of the proposed Class by misclassifying them as independent contractors when Plaintiff was, in fact, an employee.

RULE 23 CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

31. Plaintiff brings this action on his own behalf, and as a class action, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23, on behalf of a class of individuals defined as follows: Any and all individuals employed by Defendants at Defendants’ business at any time during the six-year period preceding the date on which this complaint was filed (the “Class”).

36. A class action is by far the most efficient way by which to resolve all FLSA and NYLL claims belonging to any current or former Employee of Defendants, which occurred at any time within the relevant limitations period. The expense and burden associated with individual litigation of each claim held by each member of the Class would be extraordinarily inefficient for Defendants, for members of the Class, and for courts of this District.
37. Common questions of law and fact prevail with respect all members of the Class predominate over questions applicable solely to individual Class members. Among such common question of law and fact is whether Defendant has violated its state and federal legal obligations by failing to comply with FLSA and NYLL requirements in the manner alleged by Plaintiff herein, such that all members of the Class are owed minimum, overtime and/or spread of hours pay, as well as damages for failure to provide required wage and other notices.
38. Plaintiff knows of no special or unique difficulty that would be encountered in the management of litigation that might preclude its maintenance as a class action.
39. The names and addresses of Class members are readily discernable from the Defendants' business records. Notice of this case to each member of the Class, along with notice to each member of the Class that he/she will need to opt-out of the Class or otherwise be barred from pursuing future action, can be delivered by U.S. Mail, or electronic mail (where applicable), using technique and a form of notice similar to those customarily used in class action litigation in the District, and can additionally be posted at Defendants' place of business, or by other means that are likely to reach members of the Class.
